First Generation

1. William CAMERON was born (date unknown). Name of George's parents from Ancestry.ca, Sprenger Family data, no proof.

William CAMERON and Mary MACKINTOSH were married. Mary MACKINTOSH, daughter of William MACKINTOSH, was born in 1750 in Reay, Scotland.[1] Father's name from Ancestry.ca, Sprenger Family data.

William CAMERON and Mary MACKINTOSH had the following child:

+2 i. George I CAMERON Sr., born 25 Apr 1770, Banff, Fanffshire, Scotland; married CAMERONMNU; died abt 1833.

Second Generation

2. George I CAMERON Sr. (William-1) was born on 25 Apr 1770 in Banff, Fanffshire, Scotland.[2] BIRTH: date is from Ancestry.ca from Sprenger Family data. He died about 1833 at the age of 63. Little seems to be known about George, father of Donald George.
The reference on page 6 in Grace Cumming's book " THE Cameron Family Tree " are limited, I have estimated the dates. The book states he died at age 68 years.
In our search for George and his family Garth Little queried data from Scotland. He received the following answer.

Dear Garth, Diane Baptie, who specializes in transcribing documents in the National Archives, rather than working with the Old Parish Registers in the neighbouring New Register House (GRO(S)), forwarded your message to me, as a fellow member of ASGRA.
The births/baptisms and marriages in the Old Parish Registers are fully indexed, and I am sorry to say that there is no trace of a) the birth/baptism of Donald to George Cameron, 5 Jan 1790, b) the birth/baptism of Jane/Jean Stuart/Stewart, 10 July 1803, or c) their marriage c. 11 Jan 1821, in the Inverness area. Many events went unrecorded, since it was not compulsory to register b.m.d.s until 1855, but it does seem unfair none of the three events you are looking for are in the Old Parish Registers! There are no Secession church baptisms or marriages extant for Inverness at this period. Sorry not to be able to be more helpful. All good wishes,
Anne Garven, 8 Lixmount Avenue, Edinburgh EH5 3EP, Scotland

From this it is evident George and Donald were born elsewhere in Scotland and the search needs to be continued.

George I CAMERON Sr. and CAMERONMNU were married. CAMERONMNU was born (date unknown).

George I CAMERON and CAMERONMNU had the following child:

+3 i. Donald George ii CAMERON, born 5 Jan 1790, Scotland; married Jane Anne STUART, 11 Jan 1821, Inverness, Scotland; died 24 Sep 1843, Blenheim, Ontario area.

Third Generation

3. Donald George ii CAMERON (George I-2, William-1) was born on 5 Jan 1790 in Scotland. He died on 24 Sep 1843 at the age of 53 in Blenheim, Ontario area. He was buried in Crawford Cemetery. With the assistance of Gordon M. Graham Cameron of Gurnsey Island, UK I have obtained the parish records for Inveravon marriages for Donald and Jane Stuart. We also have the birth records for their children that were born in Scotland, Jane 1822. James 1824, John 1827, George 1831, Mary 1833. Two more children, William and Margaret were born in Canada. Later they all seem to have gained second middle names. Self named?
ORIGIN: They came from south of the city of Banff in Banff County (Banffshire) in the township of Tomalienan in the parish of Inveravon in the north east corner of Scotland.
EMIGRATION: so far the spring of 1835 seem the best fit for Donald, wife and 5 children to come to Canada. Grace Cumming recorded in her notes this was a six week voyage of course by sailing ship.
OCCUPATION: from the book, "From the First 200 Years of Blenheim & S. Harwich Township," 1785-1985 by Alvin Armstrong, in the foreword it states that Blenheim did not invite settlement until the 1830's. Page 40, blacksmith Donald George Cameron had work waiting for his arrival in this period. (1830-1850)
SETTLE:DEATH:: near Blenheim at Harwich Tsp, Lot 10 on Con. 2, Communication West Survey in 1836 from Kent County Gazateer & General Directory.
From Grace Cumming's book, emigrated to Canada in the spring of 1835 and bought a 200 acre farm near Valetta, Tilbury Twp, Kent Co, Ontario.
Built the first log cabin, moved in on Jane's 13th birthday, August 7, 1835. Later Donald went in search of higher land, as the country around Valletta was low and swampy. Donald filed a land claim on lot 10, Con. 2, (W.C.R.) Harwich. He moved his family into a new log cabin in 1836.

In 1852 John Cameron moved to the 4th line farm, marrying Martha Clark (wife #2), daughter of Joseph Clark, a preacher. John donated an acre of land from the corner of his land for the Fourth Line Church. Martha & John were married in Oct. 1852 and Amanda was born in 1853. Two years later, Martha and her infant daughter Irene, both died in 1855. In 1850 the Camerons bought the farm on the opposite corner for their son George. He married a neighbour Agnes Irving on Sept. 26, 1855.

Her father was a minister at the Methodist Church, a circuit rider, very devout, an eloquent and a convincing preacher.

I assume she died in child birth or soon after with Irene who died in infancy.

John B. iii CAMERON and Martha CLARK had the following children:

24 i. Amanda iv CAMERON was born in 1853. She died in 1873 at the age of 20.[13]

I will accept 1861-8=1853 as birth date.

25 ii. Irene iv CAMERON was born in 1855. She died in 1855 at the age of 0. It appears that Irene died in childbirth with her mother Martha. Not listed in 1861 census, DEATH:See page 5 of the Cameron Family Tree by Grace Cummings.

She was buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Blenheim, Kent, Ontario. Grace Cumming was responsible for the writing of the book The Cameron Family Tree circa 1972 completed by a friend Marie Smith Hamilton shortly after Grace's death. The following is from that book.
THE HOUSE I LIVED IN
A rambling old house with many rooms. The living room carpeted, striped rag carpet and the easel with a large picture of our great grandparents John and Ann Stuart (Stewart).Under this carpet was a layer of oat straw. It was much more pliable than wheat straw. And in this room was a large fireplace. A poker and brass kettle affair. I had the pleasure of filling it in nice weather. Grandmother would sit and read her Bible, and tea table nearby where tea was always served. The tea-kettle was brass of which I: now have. There were two sizes; another table on the other side consisted of family photos and odd things such as candle holders etc.

61. Ibid.

Then several chairs with needle point backs etc. I loved this room. It was always comfortable and everyone seemed to enjoy it. Grandfather loved the fireplace in the centre of the house. Then he would get down the bagpipes and play. Then he would say "Come luk a daise and dance." That was Aunt Margaret but she didn't like to dance. But I did.

Then the dining room. The table was always full length and a lovely old cupboard held all the silver and dishes and tablecloths. On cupboard were lovely cranberry glass. Always a lovely bowl of shining apples in the centre.
Then the kitchen, a very long place and a table always full length, and the stove a large one. I remember it had six lids, the oven too was large. The housekeeper Maggie Stowe and her son Schyler Stowe lived there too. She was a lovely cook. She and grandmother served many fine meals to friends far and near. Including the Indians who came with their furs, and if they stopped for the night they slept on the floor by the fire place as that was the way they wanted it. At the end of this kitchen was a large room. There would be plenty of wood kindling and chips. Water was kept in large crocks--carried in from the well. Here is where I filled the brass tea-kettle. The seed corn and all other seeds hung from rafters in the ceiling, also dried apples. in this room were many shelves. They contained the sur*pl*us lard, maple sugar. Also cured meats, pork, beef and lamb were stored. They were covered with cotton. Then in crocks were cucumber, pickles, pears, dill pickles. sauerkraut apple butter and a crock of cookies.
Then in the stable barn where the buggies, sleigh, etc. were stored at one end. The stable stalls housed the driving horses. This barn was struck by lightning and killed one of the driving horses. Grandfather felt very badly when this happened. He had bought five acres in Blenheim. He said to Grandmother Agnes "Let us move into Blenheim" So, in the fall, they did. And my Uncle John A. Cameron took over the farm. Maggie Stowe stayed on as housekeeper and her son "Ski" came on to Blenheim and took full charge of Uncle Wallace because he was a cripple from the waist down and used a wheel chair. Uncle Wallace was not discouraged. He studied law and took a course at home: He pleaded many a case for people. So in this way he was independent.
The house in town was where Cameron Ave. now is. Grandfather loved to sit on the porch of a summer evening and play his bag pipes. I would be playing games with the neighbors' children. Once I heard a neighbour say there's that dam Cameron playing his dam pipes again." But Grandfather loved the pipes. Grandfather gave an acre from the corner of his farm as the site for the Fourth Line Church. Later he gave the flag pole and flag.
Grandfather and Agnes ran a hotel at Cook's Corners (now Charing Cross). He always said that he ran, an honest hotel because he always paid his licence. There was a toll-gate across the road to. Chatham. The hotel burned. Mr. Munrow the toll-gate keeper ran in and rescued the Beer Stein which hung over the Bar. Later he gave it to Grandmother and I have a picture of it. The following was taken from Catharine (Cameron) Whitside's scrapbook.
MEN OF THE INDUSTRY BUILDING in Canada, June 25, 1932 JOHN F. CAMERON
General Sales Manager of Gypsum;- Lime- and Alabastine, Canada, Limited.
The subject of this sketch needs little introduction to most of our readers as for the past 27 years he has been actively identified with the building industry and prominently associated with the production and marketing of gypsum products since 1916.
Born in Wallaceburg. Ontario, he spent most of his earlier years in Simcoe, his entry into the construction industry being in 1905 when he joined the staff of the George A. Fuller Company in New York, and was subsequently with the same firm in Ottawa and Toronto, following which he was for a short period with Byers & Anglin, general contractors.
'It was in 1916 that Mr. Cameron first became identified with the gypsum industry when he entered the services of the Alabastine Hard Mortar Company, then a subsidiary of the Alabastine Company of Canada. From there he moved to Elora, Ont., to act as Superintendent of the Elora Lime Plant of the Alabastine Company, and after several years there in which he acquired an intimate and thorough knowledge of this branch of the industry he was appointed in charge of a sales office for the Canada Plasterboard Company, another subsidiary of the old Alabastine Company.

Rapid promotion followed, and in 1920 Mr. Cameron was appointed Sales Manager for the Ontario Gypsum Company at Paris, Ont. continuing in that position through the various developments and extensions of that company which led to the formation of Gypsum, Lime and Alabastine, Canada, Limited of which Empire-wide known organization he is now General Sales Manager and a company director. In his rise through the various plant and executive position; which Mr. Cameron has so ably filled, he has been largely responsible for the present large sales of the varied line of gypsum products manufactured by the organization and for the rapid development in the production and marketing of these product. Mr. Cameron has ever taken an active interest in the welfare of our Canadian building industry and was, for several years on the executive of the Canadian Construction Association, of which he is still ;an active member.

During, the holiday season and whenever an hour or so can be spared from business duties he is a devotee of the royal game of golf and a great lover of fishing; and in the winter months is an ardent hockey fan, taking a close personal interest in the local hockey club at Paris, Ont., of which he has been an enthusiastic supporter. He is a member of the Engineers Club, Toronto and Montreal: the Paris Golf and Country Club and the Paris Hockey Club.

OCCUPATION: To add to the above from an obituary in Simcoe Reformer of May 6/46 states he was with Gypsum L. & A. Co for 27 years, latterly as General Manager. Then left the company to form J. F. Cameron Company, sales agents for Medusa Cement of Cleveland also Hamilton Beach, Manning Rowan & Clinton Metallic Co. In 1938 Medusa built a plant in Paris and John became the Managing Director and held this position at the time of his death.

He pointed out that the good a man does upon this earth does not end with his death but lives on in many ways. Death was a certainty that nobody could evade. In Paris he was known for his energies in civic in welfare service. A charter member and Past President of the Lions Club. Mr. Cameron was particularly credited with having fathered the Lion's Club children's playground. During construction he spent a good part of his time there. There was a plaque in the park denoting his efforts. He also served on the Board of Education, The Willet Hospital board and was active in the management of the United Church and at the time of his untimely death in his 58th year was serving his second year on the Public Utilities Commission.
